The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ — Year C 23 June 2019

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

He fed them with the finest wheat and satisfied them with honey from the rock.

FIRST READING: GENESIS 14:18-20

Melchizedek Brought bread and wine.

RESPONSORIAL PS: PSALM 109:1-4

You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

SECOND READING: 1 CORINTHIANS 11:23-26

Every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming the death of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia! I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: LUKE 9:11-17

They all ate and were filled.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.

REFLECTIONS ON THE READING...

Jesus said to his apostles: 'Do this in memory of me.' We all love to be remembered. This was true even for Jesus. But if we want to be remembered, we have a duty also to remember. Memory is a powerful thing.
Wrongly used it brings death; rightly used it brings life, and is a form of immortality. It keeps the past alive. Those we remember never die; they continue to walk and talk with us. Lord, when we celebrate the Eucharist we are remembering you.
May that remembering bring us life here and hereafter.

Reflection - The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ...

*What we celebrate today is the hospitality of God in the gift of Jesus, shared with the world in his personal fullness, in his "body and blood." Luke's account of the feeding of the five thousand is situated in the part of his Gospel that focuses on mission (Luke 9:1-50), and it can be seen as symbolic of the outreach of the church.
There is no special invitation to this Bethsaida meal, no house or dining hall in which to eat. Even though Jesus had planned a kind of ministry "debriefing" session with his apostles, everyone who had found out where they were and followed them is welcomed at Bethsaida, and Jesus teaches and heals them until late in the day.
The Twelve tell Jesus to send the crowd away to find shelter and food, neither of which is available in the lonely place, but Jesus responds to them with the challenge. "You give them something to eat." Having just completed their first missionary field work of preaching, healing and exorcising, the apostles are now called to partnership with Jesus in another apostolic mission: feeding the hungry crowds.*

Jesus' command that the Twelve seat the crowd in a hundred groups of fifty each is an image of the local churches gathered as the church universal. Just as Jesus has taught the crowd throughout the day, so he will now teach his disciples something more about the kingdom in action when he takes, blesses, breaks, and gives the five loaves and two fishes into the hands of the disciples to give to the crowd.
