Reflection - Not losing faith...

All three readings of today's Mass have comforting words. In the first reading Isaiah says: 'Courage, do not be afraid.' in the second reading St James says: 'Be patient! Do not lose heart.' And in the Gospel we have the lovely words of Jesus to his cousin, John: 'Happy the person who does not lose faith in me.' We might be going along nicely but then a storm suddenly hits us: unemployment, a serious illness, a suicide in the family ... These kinds of things shatter our faith in the right order of things and even in God. At times like these may we hear the words of Isaiah: 'Courage! Do not be afraid.' John the Baptist was a holy, God fearing man, yet he ended up in a dungeon under sentence of death. We can do our best, but things may still go wrong. We feel let down by God. We doubt his love for us and perhaps even his existence. At times like these may we hear the words of Jesus: 'Blessed is the person who does not lose faith in me.' Modern life is becomingly increasingly stressful.

Christmas brings added work and more stress. Some people can feel overwhelmed, and wonder if they will be able to cope. In times like these may we hear the words of Isaiah: 'Courage! Do not be afraid.' Death constitutes the severest test of all for our faith. We live our lives in the shadow of death. That all of us, but especially those who have recently lost a loved one, and who stand in darkness and in the shadow of death, may hear the words of Jesus: 'Blessed is the person who does not lose faith in me.'

We all want a lasting peace in the world. Some people are working to bring that peace about. These have every reason to grow weary and give up, because of the apparent lack of progress. May the peacemakers hear the words of St James: 'Be patient! Do not lose heart.'
